

I know what you've said wasn't complete
You've told me everything I needed to hear
You thought I was possessed, lived in a dream
I'm waking up, I'm over you

You can't control me anymore.
I always knew it was a lie
Life goes on, I feel it now
I need to get out, I need to break free

Ref:

Life has shown me everything
(How to be a guide, take control, realize what you've got)
Life has shown me a better way
(Be whoever you like, don't be afraid, don't you know what you've got)

It's over now, you're still trying to control,
You don't know how to let go
I told you once, "go out of my life".
I'm moving on, need to break free.

You can't control me anymore.
I knew it was all a lie
Life goes on, I see it now
I need to get out, I need to break free, yeahh
